GUST LARSON TRAPS BEAR

A monster male black bear, that weighed 350 pounds even though it was very lean, and which had killed two yearling sheep and a calf belonging to Gust Larsen, of Cole Creek valley, near Farmers Valley, was shot last Saturday morning by the loser of the sheep.

The bear was vicious and powerful, having dragged a trap set by Mr. Larsen and a log also for a distance of three miles through the underbrush from the point on the farm where the trap had been baited with the remains of the lamb's carcass. The combined weight of the trap and the log was over one hundred pounds.

Mr. Larsen went to look at the trap he had set and found it gone, and the heavy log to which it was attached had also disappeared. An unmistakable sign of a great struggle and a torn up path showed that something had carried the entire apparatus away.

Getting his gun he started trailing the animal, and found that it had taken a roundabout course after leaving the farm. After walking about three miles, to a point about a mile from his home, he saw the beast making its way as fast as possible with its load. He shot it three times and it fell.

The capture of the bear is good news to the farmers of the section, as they viewed with alarm the depredations of the bear upon Mr. Larsen's flock. It is believed, however, that the mate of the dead bear may be on the hills nearby, and a watch is being kept for it, in case it begins hunting for the male.

The tremendous stature of the beast was such that Mr. Larsen believes it would have weighed close to five hundred pounds in the full season.

The hide was given away by the trapper to a neighbor. Last year at about this season, Mr. Larsen got a large bear, which had been killing sheep.

CLOTHING CENTERS IN THE COUNTY GREAT SUCCESS.

Bradford, May 5.—One of the most constructive pieces of welfare service ever undertaken in Bradford was the clothing center, which has just completed a two weeks work at the rest room, under the auspices of the extension department of Pennsylvania State college. During the 11 days of actual teaching the total attendance was 231; the total number of people attending was 77; the number of shirt waists and dress patterns fitted was 79; the number of dresses made was 60; the number of garments remodeled, 3.

Such is the numeral report, but what mere numbers cannot possibly convey is the happy spirit of the rest room and the joy of accomplishment that pervaded it. It is the regret of the pupils that the school must close and a request is going in to the State college that as soon as possible another center be established.

Miss Irma Donahan and Miss Agnes Zollman, the State college instructors, who were conducting their work in Bradford, wish to thank the Singer Sewing Machine company for the use of machines; and Kreugon Furniture store for services; Emery Hardware store for ironing boards; Bradford Transfer company for transportation.

Arrangements for the use of the rest room were made by Miss Josephine Cramer, the Home Economic Extension worker in McKean county through Raymond Woodruff, secretary of the Board of Commerce. Mrs. Johnson, matron in charge, did everything possible to maintain a comfortable and hospitable atmosphere.

HON. GEORGE E. ALTER.

ALTER VISITS ERIE COURTS

Hon. A. W. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of this place was one of the hosts to Hon. George E. Alter attorney general of Pennsylvania and candidate for governor when he was in Erie several days ago the guest of the Erie County Bar Association.

Mr Alter is making a splendid fight during the eleventh hour of the nomination contest, and his campaign leaders predict a sweeping victory over Gifford Pinchot.

Speaking of Alter's trip to Erie the Times of that city says: The attorney general will address a Republican mass meeting in the court house this evening and during the day he is meeting Republican voters of the city. A reception in his honor will be held at the Lawrence hotel this afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock, when the people of Erie will have an opportunity to meet the man who undoubtedly will be governor of Pennsylvania for the coming four years.

The attorney general came into Erie late last night from his home in Sprindale Allegheny county, and early this morning he was accorded an impromptu reception at the Lawrence when the judges of the court, Hon. C. P. Rossiter, Hon. W. E. Hirt and Hon. Henry Clark, and Hon. A. W. Mitchell and Hon. A. E. Sisson, of the state senate, called at the hotel to pay their respects to him. At the time the attorney general consented to pose for his picture for The Times, with the three Judges of the court and Mr. Mitchell.

The meeting to be held at the court house this evening will be presided over by Hon. A. W. Mitchell, a close personal friend of the attorney general, who served with him as a member of the legislature in 1913.

GUILD CLOSES FOR THE YEAR

The members of St. Margaret's and St. Helen's guilds, under the direction of Miss Mae Choate assisted by Mrs Lewis Robinson, held their closing exercises Tuesday evening in St. Luke's parish house. Each guild gave an amusing play, then the sewing for the year was exhibited, and prizes given for attendance, quality of sewing, etc. Following this light refreshments were served to the guests and members of the guild.

The teachers of the different guilds were: Miss Mae Choate and Mrs. W. S. Palmer for St. Margarets guild, and Mrs. Lewis Robinson and Miss Eulalia King for St. Helen's guild. All of whom deserve commendation for their admirable work.

TOSSED UP, NOT HELD, UP SAYS TOMMY

Tommy Clark states that the cut he wore for several days on his noble brow was caused by harsh contact with the roof of his wild and wooley flivver as it skimmed the top of the ruts on some of our city boulevards nearby.

Wierd tales of more colorful nature as to the origin of the gash were denied by the beaming Tommy.

BOTTLE FACTORY LOOMS BRIGHTLY

Resurrected from an almost hopeless grave where it had been buried by even the most optimistic the plan to re-open the old bottle factory here looms up brightly owing to the success of the last desperate move by the backers of the move.

Bottle blowers with sufficient ready money have been found by the local promoters to furnish the necessary share of stock needed to begin operations. The local business have already pledged themselves to a sum which makes certain that the plant will be rebuilt on the old site before long.

For reasons best known to themselves the backers of the plan are not making public the bottle blowers' names who will go into the co-operative stock company in a financial way but sufficient guarantees have been procured as to make a small possibility of the plan not being put through.

A thirty-six man tank is being planned and it is said that a market for all the bottles that can be produced has been found.

Conferences with the prospective workmen stockholders are now being held and within a short a definite contract between the out of own workmen and the local business men is to be announced.

COUNTY LIQUOR LICENSES REFUSED

Refusal of all the licenses applied for in the county, except that of J. C. Allen, doing business as the Bradford Bowling Company was made by Judge Bouton, here on Monday during license court. The licenses refused included those of Charles O. Gash, Hotel Weaver; Patrick Mulqueen, Mansion House; Archie and Frank Grant, Option House; Thos. J. Feeney, Capitol Hotel; Katherine Stancyl, Cory House; Eva Hamilton, City Hotel; John Wilson, Rochester Hotel in Bradford.

J. A. Eckberg, St. Elmo Hotel, Kane; E. C. Cleveland, Brewer House, Mt. Jewett.

James Mahoney, Butts House, Mt. Alton.

The Judge's reason for declaring against the granting of the licenses is given in the following opinion by the court:

It will be observed that the Brooks law, so-called, to-wit, the act of 1887, contained the following:

"Provided that no license shall be granted under the provisions of this act to any person to sell in any room where groceries are sold at wholesale or retail."

The act of 1921, known as the Woner bill, which was an amendment to the Brooks law, contained the following proviso:

"Provided that no licenses shall be granted under the provisions of this act to any person to sell in any room where groceries are sold, or any place of resort for minors."

It will be observed that both the Brooks law and the Woner law absolutely prohibited the sale of vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors to minors, and it seems to have been the policy of the Woner law to further protect minors from temptation to purchase liquors and remove the temptation of licenses to sell to minors when they added the proviso above named.

Each of the applicants for retail licenses at this term are keepers of hotels, and the place in each instance asked to be licensed, is a hotel. A hotel is a public resort beyond all question, and it is as much a place of resort for minors as it is for those of full age. A keeper of a hotel is bound to furnish entertainment to all people of respectability, who apply for accommodations, if he has such accommodations. In other words, if his rooms are not all occupied, he can not refuse applicants for such rooms and accommodation. If we are right in our conclusion that a hotel is a place of resort for minors, then under the law, we are prohibited from granting a license for such place.

The Woner law has removed the discretion of the court as to the necessity for the license—but has given the courts discretion as to the fitness of the place. It follows, then, in addition to the prohibition against granting licenses to a place of resort for minors, in view of the spirit of the law, which, in our judgment, as already said, seeks to remove the temptation for minors to purchase liquors, that a hotel is not a fit place in which to sell vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors. This opinion will be filed and will apply to all retail licenses at this term, and will become a part of the record in each case.

JUDGE BOUTON GIVES BOOTLEGGERS "JERSEY JUSTICE."

Judge Bouton, of McKean county, specially presiding in Bradford county at some bootleggers' trials threw a bomb into their ranks when he passed out sentences to Fred, George and Charles Vogle, of Towanda, convicted of illegal booze selling a fine of $1000 each and a year and nine months each in the county jail. Two who pleaded guilty were fined $1000 each and six months in jail. Judge Bouton seems to run to four figure fines and jail sentences. A sensational attempt by the defense to put the first case all on George failed, and the brotherly trio have entered on their sentences.

Northern Bradford county has been for a long time the reputed "classification yards" for bootleggers for distribution to points west as far as Buffalo. Some citizens have made fortunes through the traffic, it is alleged, and this notice that if they want to enjoy small fines and short sentences, they better keep Judge Bouton off the bench and get some one more in sympathy with their occupation.—North American.

PRIMARIES ON NEXT TUESDAY

The election on next Tuesday is for the purpose of nominating a candidate for governor and also for picking a Republican candidate to be the standard bearer in the coming fight for the House of Representatives seat and other State offices.

George E. Alter is the Republican organization candidate for governor while Gifford Pinchot is the opposition. For Congress, Evan W. Jones, of McKean county is contesting a strong opponent in William I. Swoope, of Clearfield.

Preparation is being made by the workers of both factions to get out the full strenght of the party to secure a satisfactory decision in the primaries as to the most popular candidate.

Old line Republicans predict a sweeping victory for the organization candidate, while many of the other faction who have always stood for the organization are placing their all on the chances of Mr. Pinchot's nomination.

Particularly obnoxious to many of the Pinchot supporters is the fact that the Grundy forces are behind him, but many of these have swallowed this bitter pill without a grimace and are backing Pinchot notwithstanding.

Many of the leading supporters of Congressman Jones, are fighting for Pinchot, which is another incongruity.

All Boy Scouts must be out to the next meeting Wednesday, May 17 at 7:15 P. M. to prepare for Memorial Day. By Order of Scoutmaster.

SCHOOLS HERE IN DUAL MEET

Smethport and Bradford High Schools will hold a dual athletic meet here on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Fair Grounds.

Nine events have been prepared. Smethport school is considered the strongest team in the county spring athletic meet to occur here later in the month, and from which Bradford and Kane are excluded. Therefore, the local school wished to take on the Bradford school in preparation to the general meet.

Bradford made a great showing at Allegany last week in the Saint Bonaventure's meet, and expect to have an easy time with the local teams.

However, Dr. A. R. Livermore, who is coaching the locals and has been pushing them hard for some weeks past, states that the athletes from Bradford are going to get a big surprise, and is confident that the locals will win.

The following events and the locals who will compete are: 100-yd and 220-yd dash, Cohn, Mundy, Engstrom and Denning; 220-yd low hurdles Mundy and Halpenny; one-half mile run, Cohn, Flynn and D. Miller, one mile run, Coytiostro, Warner, and L. Johnston; high jump, Mundy and Bouton; pole vault, Hamilton and Metzgar; broad jump, Mundy, Bouton and Metzgar; half-mile relay, contestants to be picked by the usual method during the meet.

ATTENDED RELATIVES FUNERAL ARRESTED AS DESERTER

Kane, Pa., May 8.—Riley Broughton of Smethport was arrested by Chief of Police Fowler shortly before noon today, upon receipt of information from Chief of Police Al Ives of Johnsonburg that Broughton was wanted as a deserter from the United States army. Chief Fowlers found the young man at the home of Leo Paugh in North Kane.

Broughton was a soldier in the world war and re-enlisted at its close and has lately been stationed at Fort Porter, near Buffalo, and it was found the commandant of the fort that Chief Ives received the request to apprehend Broughton.

The alleged deserted is about 22 years old, and surely made no great effort to get away as he is well known around McKean county and one day last week attended the funeral of a relative in Smethport. He will be held here until further information is received.—Kane Republican.

CHICAGO LABOR LEADERS TERMED SLAUGHTERERS

Chicago, May 10. Fred "Fancy" Mader president of the Chicago Building Trades Council and more than 150 other labor leaders were in jail here tonight after having been caught in a dozen raids on various union headquarters today.

The round up resulted from the murder of two patrolmen and the wounding of another in a running pistol fight in which the killers ended the police last night. The two slaying followed the bombing of two buildings the culmination of a series of disorders belived by the police to have been due to labor warfare in the building trades.

In ordering the raids Charles C. Fitzmorris chief of police, declared some labor leaders were "just as guilty of the murder of the two two policemen as were the anarchists of the Haymarket riot." He characterized the killing as "slaughter" and termed the labor leaders "hoodlums and exconvicts."

"I have the officers and representatives of every union in the building trades council and some other unions too represented among those arrested," he said, after the raids.

"Those arrested will be treated like ordinary prisoners and held until they can be questioned."

The list of those taken into custody included the names of some of the men who have been known for years as the leaders of labor in Chicago.

ACCIDENT TO WOMAN FOLLOW MAN'S MISTAKE.

Miss Margaret Judd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Judd of No. 74 Kennedy street, who fractured her foot when she fell down the stairway of her home Wednesday evening at about 11:30 o'clock, was reported as resting comfortably at her home last evening.

Mrs. Judd and her daughter retired earlier than usual Wednesday evening and as Mr. Judd was attending the theatre they decided to leave the door open so that he could enter without awakening the family when he returned.

Saw Man in Hallway.

Between 11 and 11:30 o'clock, Mrs. Judd was startled by a noise and looking into the hallway, saw the figure of a man outlined against the wall.

Receiving no answer to her query "Is that you, Charles?" Mrs. Judd became frightened as the figure continued to move toward her and losing her self-control, began to scream.

The screams of the mother awakened Miss Judd, who was asleep in a room facing the front of the house, and she rushed to the head of the stairway screaming. In trying to descend the stairs in the dark, Miss Judd stumbled and fell sustaining a fracture of her foot.

The screams of the women attracted the attention of passersby, who entered the house and held the intruder.

The man begged Mrs. Judd not to call the police but to let him explain Mrs. Judd refused at first, but at last the plea of the man was heard and he was allowed to tell his side of the story. He got into the wrong house.

After the man had finished his story and showed his credentials, he was allowed to go. Mrs. Judd said last night that, in the excitement, she had forgotten the name of the man, but that he was a member of the "Dear Me" company which appeared at the Bradford theatre Wednesday night.

Miss Judd was taken to the Bradford hospital yesterday morning where an X-ray was taken of the injured foot. It was found that a bone was fractured. Miss Judd was then taken back to her home.

PIPE JOB STARTED.

Bradford, May 7.—The United Natural Gas Company has started its big job of taking up 32 miles of pipe line which extends from La Mont, near Kane, to Lewis Run borough. 20 miles of this is 12-inch pipe and the remainder 8-inch pipe, forming an undertaking of 100 men are already employed.

Officials of the gas company say that the advertisement for 100 men considerable magnitude on which met with quick response and within two days they had more men apply for work than could be used. Work on taking up the pipe is well underway.

A large number of the workmen are encamped on the McDade farm, about 2 miles from Kane on the state road. The men eat and sleep at the camp and are enthusiastic over the commissary department, saying that the meals served are fine. It will take several months to complete the job and the men's camps will follow the course of the work.

N. Y. & PA. RAILROAD MAY CEASE OPERATION.

Hornell, May 6.—The fate of the New York & Pennsylvania Railroad which operates between Canisteo, N. Y., and depends a great deal on what the Dairymen's League plant at Whitesville does, so it developed at the annual business meeting of the board of directors. If the plant does not continue the road is apt to cease operations as well.

The railroad has had its reverses elsewhere. In those days it was owned by the Cobbs of Spring Mills and a few years ago they tired of continuing replenishing the empty coffers and ceased operation.

The road was completely tied up for more than a year and several miles of it between Genesee and Whitesville was torn up. But eventually the people living along the road subscribed to a fund and purchased the property and for the last two years it has been operated by the new owners but without much success.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, John Troy of Olean; Vice president John R. Lavens, Bradford, Pa.; secretary, T. Churchill, Cobb, Canisteo; treasurer, N. E. Coston, Greenwood; general manager, C. M. Beasor, Canisteo. Directors: John Troy, Olean; J. R. Lavens, Bradford, Pa.; W. W. Crittenden, Oswayo, Pa.; George Burd, Canisteo; Dr. L. G. Probasco, Whitesville; T. Churchill Cobb Greenwood; Fordyce Cobb, Ithaca; Rev. C. H. Silke, Rexville; N. E. Coston, Greenwood; John Dodge, Shinglehouse, Pa., and John Stone Coudersport, Pa.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Congress

WILLIAM IRVIN SWOOPE
of Clearfield, Pa.,

Subject to the decision of the Republican voters of the Twenty-third Congressional District, including Cameron, Clearfield, Center and McKean Counties, at the Spring Primaries, May 16th, 1922.

After a year of pleasant association with the good folks of Smethport, I am severing my connection with the Miner this week.

My stay here has been beneficial to me in every respect, my time filled with the good things of life which means friendship and the joy of community co-operation.

Though I hope for a wider field of endeavor on The Baltimore Sun, where I expect to be employed in an editorial capacity, as I was previous to coming to Smethport, and that I shall have an opportunity of going ahead as far as my ability allows, I am certain I shall miss the fellowship of this town and the friends I have made.

I feel that it is slated to boom and flourish in the near future, and I sincerely hope for its tremendous prosperity.

THE EDITOR.

CHOOSE.

It's up to you to see that the right man is nominated for the governorship. No one can gainsay the fact that each vote of each man is a cog in the great machine which decides our political issues. Each ballot is a determining factor just as much as each brick is necessary to the building of a house.

If you do not vote in the primaries for Alter for governor and Jones for Congress, then you are permitting an opportunity to slip by. An opportunity for the best that there is in the political field.

Alter stands for the Republican organization, and the organization has made the Grand Old Party what it is in Pennsylvania.

Pinchot stands with Grundy and disgruntled Grundyites. As a governor; Pichot would make an excellent forester.

Alter is a successful state executive, and will make a governor of the true Pennsylvania type which has occupied the seat for years.

MOTHER-O-MINE.

Mother o' mine, if I could but be
Back in the years that are memory,
What wonderful days they would be to me,
Knowing the things which I now can see.

Mother o' mine, you are more to me
More now, than ever you used to be;
Because I'm now beginning to see
The sacrifices you made for me.

Mother o' mine, now the days are few
When I look not to the heavens blue;
And I know now, as I never know,
That your task is still watched o'er by you.

ALTER SURE TO BE NOMINATED

Grundy-Pinchot Alliance Repulsive to Republicans.

LABOR OPPOSES EX-FORESTER

Working Men and Women Will Not Tolerate Grundyism Getting Control of the Dominant Party in State. Alter's Record Good Enough For Every Republican.

Philadelphia, May 6.—Attorney General George E. Alter will win the Republican nomination for Governor in Pennsylvania at least Tuesday's election by one of the largest votes ever given to a gubernatorial candidate in a primary contest.

Reports received at the George E. Alter Campaign Committee Rooms in Stratton Building, North Thirteenth street, indicate a majority of at least 200,000.

Mr. Alter said: "The vote will be the result of the united efforts of the regular Republican leaders of every county in the State, assisted by many independents.

"The issue was brought squarely to the voters by the active support given Mr. Alter's candidacy by all elements of the Republican party who believe that his election as the Republican standard bearer will result in one of the greatest victories for the G. O. P. in the fall election in the history of Pennsylvania.

"To the women of Pennsylvania is a great deal of the success of The Alter campaign attributed by the Alter leaders.

"During the last week Mr. Alter has addressed gatherings throughout the state and met many of the most potential figures in the Republican party of Pennsylvania.

"His frank, manly and well known zeal for public service, combined with a thorough knowledge of state affairs, has won for him the active support of men and women interested in the development of Pennsylvania and the adoption by the state government of the well known policies which have characterized Mr. Alter's public career.

Safe and Sane.

Wonderful Record.

A scanning of Mr. Alter's legislative record will reveal Alter while a member on the assembly supported all legislation designed for the betterment of the state and the protection of its citizens.

He devoted himself assiduously to his legislative duties and sponsored many important bills.

Among the bills for which he voted as a member of the legislature were the acts creating mothers' pensions and the full crew bills. Determined to protect the health of the community against the activities of unscrupulous merchants, who would profit by the sale of unfit foods Mr. Alter supported pure food legislation.

He gave his whole hearted support to acts designed to protect the public against short weighing, bills designed to aid in the conservation of the state's natural resources, aiding the danger in the stamping out of the hoof and mouth disease protecting the rights of married women, aiding labor by the establishment of free employment offices.

Interested in protecting the public against stock swindlers Mr. Alter supported a bill prohibiting the sale of worthless selling securities. He supported the bill to reorganize the state forestry department and opposed a bill to decrease the number of state police.

It is upon this record that Mr. Alter will go before the voters of Pennsylvania and it is upon those achievements and actual performances, and not mere promises, that he will obtain their votes next Tuesday.

Gifford Pinchot, his opponent on the other hand has the support of the independent and regular voters when they scrutinized his record and noted his entangling alliances.

Pinchot, the self-styled reformer and advocate of remedial and social legislation of 1912 and 1911, is today the political ally of Joseph R. Grundy, President of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association.

Boldness of a Lobbyist.

Grundy and Pinchot. This alliance of a self-styled defender of the rights of women and children and the most vicious and arrogant opponent of all legislation which tended to improve the [illegible] working people [illegible] to convince the [illegible] Pennsylvania of the [illegible] of Pinchot when any [illegible] to be elected alone on the campaign. They need to know Pinchot's professions. They know what he has done and what he has promised at the [illegible] of a bill designed [illegible] safety.

They have [illegible] the boldness of Grundy's [illegible] in seeking the candidacy of Pinchot and they know by [illegible] that The Bucks County [illegible] would only appear for [illegible] when he could [illegible].

They know that Pinchot as governor would Grundy as the devil to dictator of Pennsylvania and because of their knowledge of him they wanted none of him. The accounts for the record he is [illegible] vote to be cast next Tuesday will which will result in an Alter landslide.

SENATOR PEPPER A VIGOROUS FIGHTER

Widely Appreciated For His Unflinching Americanism During National Crisis.

PLATTSBURG ROOKIE AT 50

This is the story of George Wharton Pepper—a life.

And this is the tale that the sons of Pennsylvania may tell when they are asked what part the Keystone State is playing in the new epoch just opening in the history of America.

For George Wharton Pepper, appointed United States Senator but a few months ago, takes his place in national service at a moment when tasks perhaps as great as those which confronted the fathers of the nation in '76 and the savers of the republic in '61 must be met by men of equal strength, ability, loyalty, courage and faith.

In times of stress and confusion it is not one who can think clearly and get speedily that stands forth. This quality has been one of the striking characteristics of Senator Pepper. When the storms have passed and the sky is again white the flood is spent and the waters are calm it is easy to look back, it is easy to plan. But few there be who can look through the cloud or see what rocks lie beneath the yellow waters; who dare to act while the tempest yet rages.

It is now, best to fairly every citizen that the ratification of the League of Nations Covenant would have involved America in a maze of entangling European alliances. What American escaped—plain to all. It is not widely known that George Wharton Pepper was the one man who undertook the tremendous task of showing his fellow citizens the rocks. He spreaded because he held faith in America. Today, looking backward, the invasion of Belgium by German troops is known as a crime against nations and the faith that nations must keep. But for a George Wharton Pepper, a Theodore Roosevelt and others who saw clearly, propaganda might have caused our silence. When the "Lusitania" went down, hundreds of thousands of persons fail to see what it meant, but George Wharton Pepper, peering through the fog refused to accept the dictum that we must be involved again in such a crime. So, too, he beheld it today when America should enter the conflict, and he urged that the nation prepare. It was that which took him to the Plattsburg training camp to carry his knapsack and serve in the ranks.

The Urge of Service.

In these days to thought of national service in the chamber of the United State senate one before him. It was the urge of service, the most intimate that the citizen may hold, and the one full measure that all the [illegible] great American has produced from the days of the colonies to the present hour, have given to their country. It is service that has made George Wharton Pepper a dominating figure in this new age. And, whether it was in the task of revising the constitution of Pennsylvania, or laboring to establish a better public school system, or aiding in the broader building of religion, or in spreading the realization of what true citizenship demands, this man was actuated by one purpose, to be of service to his fellows.

Senator Pepper is a lawyer, successful and highly regarded in his profession. Like every other man he provided himself with a means of a livelihood, but the fact that he is still dependent on his earnings as a means of livelihood, despite the fact that he has handled with care skill many important cases is one of the stars to by dicate how he has placed this call of service above self. All his life he has been a busy man and yet, like Roosevelt and other great Americans, he found time to go down the broad highway and, looking about, [illegible] to do to help others; to help his city, his state, his nation. Therein is courage, there is a man's man.

Both sorts of courage, both physical and moral, are found in the make up of those who lead and help build republics. Nature gave Senator Pepper a sound body and he kept it in perfect condition so that under no matter what stress he would always hold a reserve store which to draw. Nature gave him a keen sense of justice. Striking off in the south woods

CROSBY.

The familiar form of Volney Dunbar has been seen quite frequently on our streets during the past few days.

The election of teachers for the ensuing year has aroused some excitement in our town. The directors held a council and they decided that it would be feasible to have a change of teachers in the local public schools but some of our worthy citizens seem to disagree with our proficient directors and have circulated a petition to try to reinstate Miss Velma Wilcox who has been a member of our teaching force for the past six years. We appraise those who are in sympathy with this movement to harness their energy with common sense.

The congregation of the M. E. church had the unexpected pleasure of hearing Rev. Garner preach a forcible sermon on Sunday night.

From the news last week we understood that some of our readers have a hazy intellect and were not able to intelligently grasp the significance of one of the items and for their benefit we will endeavor to make the use and meaning of the word "fiance" clear, as we do not wish to write in terms that are beyond the people of ordinary comprehension we will illustrate the meaning of this troublesome word and everyone, who is acquainted with the two popular young people will always use it precisely. L. S. stands for fiancee and A. G. for fiance and the preacher will make it. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Greeley is one of our local successful teams when he unites the two. Miss "S" ers who finished her term a few an application for position here days ago and has failed to send in next year.

Correspondent.

My Dear Voter:

It is embarrassing to be a candidate for office and not have the opportunity to present one's self in person to the voters, but as Congress is in session and my Committee is having daily hearings on important legislation, it would be unfair to myself and my constituents if I were to leave now to make a personal campaign.

May I, therefore, present my candidacy to you in this formal manner?

I have been your representative for three years and have conscientiously and to the best of my ability tried to perform every trust given me. Your congressman's influence in Congress and by that I mean the direct benefits which you should receive—increases with his experience. No man should be elected to the House of Representatives simply to gratify his ambition," said Champ Clark.

I believe the voters of the district are entitled to express an opinion as to whether they wish to continue a system of changing their congressman every term or two independent of every other consideration. If my services have been satisfactory, I feel justified in making this appeal; if not, I will gladly submit to the choice of the people and support the successful Republican nominee.

Your vote and support is respectfully solicited.

Yours very truly,

EVAN J. JONES
